Being able to add an Accounts contact from Misc view rather than go back to Contact

It is now possible to add an accounts contact from within the company Miscellaneous view rather than having to go back to the contacts page.

If the accounts contact is not yet in IQX you can add them on the miscellaneous view by clicking on the ellipses at the end of the Accounts Contact field and using the Add Contact button

Changing an iqxWEB user's Rights should be an audited item in IQX

Whenever you make a change to a candidate, client or consultants iqxWEB rights this is now audited within IQX. This is shown on the audit trail on the specific page (candidate, client, consultant) and also the main audit trail within IQX.

Process for identifying when CompanyAccount does not exist when Provisional Timesheet created

Improvement to the error message when trying to open a Provisional Timesheet if no Company Account record exists. The error will prompt to enter the mandatory fields in the Company Miscellaneous view.

General Settings - Allow filtering on number

It is now possible to search by the setting number when searching for a specific setting within General Settings.
